

Köşebaşı presents ethnic Turkish food in modern setting via its 12 locations in Turkey and recently opened Athens and Sao Paulo branches.

“KÖŞEBAŞI RESTAURANT” IS AMONG THE TOP DESTINATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL VISITORS IN TURKEY

Köşebaşı is defined as “excellent,” “modern,” and “local favorite” by Zagat Survey’s “Europe’s Top Restaurants 2006”, and was also selected as one of the “Top 50 Restaurants in the World” by Conde Nast Traveler Magazine. Time Magazine and Cool Restaurants presented Köşebaşı as “the best kebab restaurant” in Istanbul. Köşebaşı has received numerous bookings from all over the world and continues to attract many celebrities including Uma Thurman, Tim Duncan, Warren Beatty, Jack Nicholson, Sting, Ester Canadas, Donna Karan, Gorbachov, Chelsea Clinton, Allen Iverson, and Bernie Ecclestone.

Since its opening in 1995, Köşebaşı, revolutionized the Turkish restaurant market by its light presentation of traditional kebabs in a modern setting and has soon become a classic. Recently Köşebaşı started with international expansion and opened branches in Athens, Greece and Sao Paulo, Brazil. Today, with its 12 locations in Turkey, Köşebaşı continues to be among the top destinations of foreigners in Turkey.

The decoration in all branches is modern and stylish and reflects a synthesis of Ottoman, European and Asian cultures. Especially Fenerbahce (historical mansion), Nisantasi (proximity to 5-star hotels) and Reina (directly on Bosphorus) branches are among favorite Köşebaşı locations for foreign visitors. Köşebaşı is the first name to recur to the mind when Turkish food, especially kebab is mentioned.
